

What are the feelings of these people?

sorrow unhappy devastated miserable hopoless sad fear boring pain tired scared
thretened tiring unfair situation discord sadness hunger afraid pressured have lost hope
hope for a better future

What kinds of concentration camps exist today?

migrant concentration camps

Unfortunately there are many concentration camps in our town for war refugees.

There are a lot of concentration camps nowadays which are meant to keep people safe and sound since their arrival in the country to save themselves from the brutality of war in their country or poverty. The truth is that they live in a absolute mess

There are many of them and there is one in Kavala too. The refuges from Syria goes there

There are a lot of concentracion canps which are for the people in need

In Spain if there are fields such as those on the Camino de Santiago in Galicia or in places where poverty abounds.

Unfortunately, there are concentration camps at the cities that are in war

There are concentration camps for immigration control(people that come from Africa, Asia,Ukraine, etc...). There are also concentration camps as punishment in Asia

i dont know